1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Penney.

The sole Figure of Penney shows a composite video switcher which has plural inputs for signals having different aspect ratios, wherein conversion from one aspect ratio to another can be carried out on respective signals (noting elements 12 and 16). Component 14 can switch between a native NTSC and a converted signal.

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Applicant is informed that all of the additional references cited describe switching between/among non-converted video signals and signals which have their aspect ratios converted.
